

Lori Kleiman

Human Resources thought leader with 30 years of small business, entrepreneurship and consulting experience takes the mystique out of human resources

Expert on

- ✓ Addressing HR in small business
- ✓ Entrepreneurism
- ✓ Reaching career potential
- ✓ Navigating the C-suite
- ✓ Consulting that build success
- ✓ HR implementation

Your participants expect and will receive:

- ✓ Real world stories and action oriented solutions
- ✓ High energy delivery engaging the audience throughout the program
- ✓ Topics that provide immediate action in their organization
- ✓ Programs that meet criteria for recertification credit

Lori makes your event shine by:

- ✓ Adapting content, format and timing to meet audience needs
- ✓ Customizing her programs 'on the fly'
- ✓ 'Low maintenance' – handling her own travel and meeting deadlines
- ✓ Participating in other conference events
- ✓ Answering confidential business questions for attendees

Programs often requested:

- ✓ Yes you do have a crystal ball: Future trends in HR
- ✓ Demystify Human Resources in small business
- ✓ Getting on the same page: driving performance results
- ✓ Recruit them right: Retain them forever
- ✓ 10,000 Steps: taking your career beyond your fit bit

Our audience was engaged with Lori's presentation style. She made herself available to the participants during the conference for Q&A which really added value.

L.A. Medical Transportation
Event Planner

Your presentation was very insightful. I appreciate the memory triggers making it easier to implement the thoughts back at the office. It was awesome to meet you.

K.B. Attendee and Professor, Brandman Univ.

Lori will customize HR content to drive action and results to your audience through an interactive energetic program!

Lori Kleiman is a business expert with more than 25 years of experience advising companies on HR issues. Her background as a human resources professional and consultant gives her unique insight on how HR professionals and executives can work together effectively to achieve business goals. Her programs are designed to provide critical HR updates and best practices to small businesses.

Lori has a Master's degree in Human Resources and is certified as a SPHR and SHRM-SCP. She has served as adjunct faculty at a number of Universities and continues today in an advisory capacity. As a member of the National Speakers Association, Lori has the tools to engage audiences and drive results.

