Commonly Requested Topics – Pre-approved by HRCI and SHRM

▶ Taking your SEAT at the table (business credit)

Struggle with getting your CEO's attention? Feel stuck in compliance and administration? How do you expand your perspective — and get the recognition you deserve? Audiences walk away with an understanding of how to take control of their career by being a Strategic Executive who is Action-oriented and embraces Technology.

▶ Yes! You do have a crystal ball (business credit)

Its not good enough to be a great HR department – you need to embrace the future trends your business is facing to stay relevant. Explore the top megatrends CEOs are watching for the next 15 years, and consider how you can use these to forecast where you need to focus your human resources initiatives.

▶ 10,000 STEPS... Taking your career beyond your fit bit

Taking your career to the next level is not always as easy as doing a great job where you are today. Moving to the next level often requires a different skill set then being just a great HR professional. This session is designed to empower integration of an HR career with the rest of the organization.

▶ Control the Chaos: Excelling as a HR Department of One

Sole member HR departments are saddled with administrative tasks, with a desire to participate at a strategic level. Looking at the HR function through the lens of the CEO is helpful to understand where you need to focus – and how to align your goals with those of the organization. You can get it all done!

▶ HR Assessments for strategic alignment and compliance

▶ Recruit them Right: Retain them forever

▶ It's gotta stop! Creating an anti-harassment program that works

▶ Getting on the same page: Performance management solutions

Lori delivers facts, tips, tricks and best practices with a sense of humor, a bias toward actions you can take right away, and practical resources and tools to support implementation. She customizes the program to the needs of each audience — from 45 minutes to a full day — and can focus on the theme of your event.
